BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION & STANDARDS

We believe that children develop the ability to be self-disciplined by positive guidance and reinforcement. Our goal is to teach your child to become a confident and happy fully functioning individual.

What we provide:

- An understanding of your child's needs, individual attention from warm and caring adults.
- We will communicate in all means possible so your child understands clearly what is expected of them.
- We will develop the best environment that is carefully planned, appropriately stimulating and predictable.
- Positive reinforcement is contagious and we will reward this desirable behavior by modeling so your child can feel good.
- We will guide your child to make good choices and showcase how poor choices cause consequences.

Therapy practitioner's methods include:

- Acknowledgement and praise for positive behaviors.
- Redirecting of negative behavior.
- Setting clear limits.
- Involving children in negotiations to solve problems.

The following discipline techniques are PROHIBITED:

- Hitting, spanking, swatting, pinching, shaking or any other measures inducing fear or physical pain.
- Any form of emotional or verbal abuse, teasing, shaming, rejecting, terrorizing or isolation.
- Ridiculing a child or family.
- Blaming, insulting, name calling or threatening a child or any form of punishment.
- Withholding food or positive attention.
- Abusive or profane language.

As parents, we need to emulate an ethical and respectful tone to each other. We will not tolerate adults yelling or using profane language to anyone in our clinic. We welcome constructive feedback and encourage utmost communications.
